Equifax Reports Continued Growth in Revenue and

Earnings in Third Quarter of 2006

ATLANTA, October 18, 2006 — Equifax Inc. (NYSE: EFX) today announced record financial results for the three months ended September 30, 2006. Revenue increased 5 percent to $394.6 million, in comparison to a strong third quarter of 2005 when revenue grew 17 percent. Net income rose 26 percent to $78.9 million, from the third quarter of 2005. Diluted earnings per share grew 30 percent to 61 cents, from the third quarter of 2005.

On a non-GAAP basis, excluding the favorable net impact of certain litigation and tax matters in the third quarter of 2006 and the negative incremental impact of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123R") on January 1, 2006, net income grew 7 percent to $66.9 milliorand diluted earnings per share rose 10 percent to 52 cents, from the third quarter of 2005. See the reconciliations of non-GAAP financial measures to the comparable GAAP financial measures attached to this earnings release for additional information.

"Our financial results reflect continued growth and are consistent with the messages communicated at our Investor Day on September 8th. These results are a testament to the strength of our market franchise, the dedication of our leadership team and the diversity of our customer base," said Richard F. Smith, Equifax Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

As announced on October 9, 2006, Equifax acquired Austin Consolidated Holdings, Inc., known as Austin-Tetra, a leading provider of business-to-business data management and enhancement services to the commercial market. This acquisition is an integral part of our long-term growth strategy, complementing our commercial information business. "The acquisition of Austin-Tetra expands Equifax's market-leading commercial information database and will broaden the suite of solutions we can provide our largest customers," Mr. Smith said.

Third Quarter 2006 Highlights

- Operating margin increased to 31 percent in the third quarter of 2006 from 29 percent in the third quarter of 2005. On a non-GAAP basis, excluding the favorable impact of certain litigation matters and the negative incremental impact of adopting SFAS 123R, operating margin was 30 percent in the third quarter of 2006.
- Cash provided by operating activities for the third quarter of 2006 was $99.4 million, bringing the total cash provided by operating activities to $255.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006.
- Equifax repurchased 2.0 million shares of its common stock on the open market for $65.0 million during the third quarter of 2006. At September 30, 2006, $183.4 million remained authorized for future share repurchases.
- The effective tax rate for the third quarter of 2006 was 29.7 percent, as compared to 39.0 percent for the same period in 2005. The decline was primarily driven by the reversal of certain income tax reserves related to uncertain tax positions due to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations during the third quarter of 2006. On a non-GAAP basis, excluding the favorable impact of the reversal of certain income tax reserves, our effective tax rate was 38.1 percent.

North America

Total revenue increased 3 percent to $314.1 million in the third quarter of 2006, from the third quarter of 2005. This increase is in comparison to a strong third quarter of 2005 when revenue grew 17 percent. Operating margin for North America was 40 percent in the third quarter of 2006 compared to 38 percent in the third quarter of 2005. On a non-GAAP basis, excluding the favorable impact of certain litigation matters, operating margin was 38 percent in the third quarter of 2006.

- North America Information Services revenue was $212.9 million, up 1 percent compared to the third quarter of 2005.
- · Marketing Services revenue was $68.7 million, up 5 percent compared to the third quarter of 2005.
- Personal Solutions revenue was $32.5 million, up 13 percent compared to the third quarter of 2005.

Europe

Total revenue was $39.8 million, up 13 percent compared to the third quarter of 2005. In local currency, revenue was up 8 percent when compared to the same period in the prior year. Operating margin was 22 percent, down from 25 percent in the third quarter of 2005.

Latin America

Total revenue was $40.7 million, up 18 percent compared to the third quarter of 2005. In local currency, revenue was up 14 percent when compared to the same period in the prior year. Operating margin was 31 percent, up from 29 percent in the third quarter of 2005.

Supplemental Financial Information and Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The Common Questions and Answers (Unaudited) ("Q&A") that are a part of this press release include supplemental financial information which Equifax believes is useful to assess its operating performance. The following financial measures included herein or in the Q&A are not prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"): pretax income, net income and diluted earnings per share, excluding certain litigation and tax matters and the incremental impact of SFAS 123R; operating income and operating margin, excluding certain litigation matters and the incremental impact of SFAS 123R; is effective tax rate, excluding certain litigation matters and the incremental impact of SFAS 123R for particular business segments and our consolidated results; and effective tax rate, excluding certain items. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures, including the related notes, is presented in the Q&A. This information can also be found under "Our Company/Investor Center/Non-GAAP/GAAP Financial Measures" on our Web site at www.equifax.com. Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Caution Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this press release that relate to Equifax's future plans, objectives, expectations, performance, events and the like may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Future events, risks and uncertainties, individually or in the aggregate, could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements. Those factors include, but are not limited to, changes in worldwide and U.S. economic conditions and movements in interest rates that materially impact consumer spending and consumer debt; changes in demand for Equifax's products and services; our ability to successfully develop new products and services; pricing and other competitive pressures; risks relating to illegal third party efforts to access data; risks associated with the integration of acquisitions and other investments; changes in laws and regulations governing our business, including federal or state responses to identity theft concerns; the outcome of pending litigation and certain other factors discussed under Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in Equifax's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K, and in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Equifax assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that exist after the date on which they were made.

Common Questions & Answers (Unaudited)

(Dollars in millions, except per share amounts)

1. What were the events associated with certain litigation matters that occurred during the third quarter of 2006?

During the third quarter of 2006, we recorded a net reversal of loss contingencies in operating expenses associated with certain litigation matters, which resulted in a favorable $5.0 million, pretax, ($3.1 million net of tax) impact on operating expenses and $0.02 favorable impact on diluted earnings per share. This net reversal of loss contingencies consists of:

- * a favorable $9.0 million, pretax, reversal of a portion of the $14.0 million, pretax, loss contingency, recorded during the second quarter of 2006 in our Personal Solutions segment financial results, due to favorable court rulings that occurred during the third quarter of 2006. Of the $9.0 million, pretax, reversal, $7.5 million was reversed to selling, general and administrative expenses and $1.5 million was reversed to cost of services in our Consolidated Statements of Income.
- * an unfavorable $4.0 million, pretax, contingent loss associated with certain legal matters within our North America Information Services segment.

The following is the impact of these litigation matters on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006:

2. What drove the increase in other income, net for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005?

The increase in other income, net was primarily due to the settlement of claims against former selling shareholders of Naviant, Inc., an acquisition in 2002, which resulted in a $14.1 million non-taxable gain (diluted earnings per share impact of $0.10) recorded during the second quarter of 2006, partially offset by a $3.3 million, pretax, gain recorded during the third quarter of 2005 related to an agreement with RMA Holdings, LLC.

The following is the impact of the Naviant litigation settlement on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006:

			ree Mon							onths End per 30, 20

Gain on litigation settlement	$		$		$		$	14.1	$	14.1	$	0.10

See non-GAAP reconciliations A and B herein, including the related notes, for additional information.

3. What drove the fluctuation in the effective tax rate?

Our effective income tax rate was 29.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2006, down from 39.0% for the same period in 2005, due primarily to the reversal of income tax reserves related to uncertain tax positions for which the applicable statute of limitations expired in the third quarter of 2006.

Our effective income tax rate was 32.9% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 down from 37.7% for the same period in 2005. The reduction was due primarily to the reversal of income tax reserves related to uncertain tax positions for which the applicable statute of limitations expired in the third quarter of 2006 and the non-taxable litigation settlement related to Naviant Inc. during the second quarter of 2006.

The following is the impact of the reversal of the income tax reserves, which resulted in an income tax benefit, on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006:

		Three Me Septemb	onths End oer 30, 20						nths End er 30, 20

4. What was the incremental impact on the Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 as a result of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123R") on January 1, 2006? The adoption of SFAS 123R resulted in the following incremental impact on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30,

2006:

				onths End ber 30, 200						onths Ende ber 30, 200

Notes to Reconciliations of Non-GAAP Financial Measures to the Comparable GAAP Financial Measures

Effective Tax Rate, Excluding Certain Items - This financial measure is not prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and excludes certain items, including (1) the reversal of a $9.5 million income tax reserve related to uncertain tax positions primarily due to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations during the third quarter of 2006 and (2) the impact of the non-taxable $14.1 million gain recorded during the second quarter of 2006 related to the settlement of claims against the former selling shareholders of Naviant, Inc., an acquisition in 2002. The effective tax rate, excluding certain items, is not a measurement of profitability under GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to net income, operating income, provision for income taxes or earnings per share.

Management believes our effective tax rate, excluding certain items provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our performance by excluding the items discussed above in order to show a comparable effective tax rate since the items during the periods are material amounts and not comparable to similar activity in the prior periods presented. Equifax believes that this financial information is useful to our management and investors in assessing Equifax's historical performance and liquidity and when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.

Pretax Income, Net Income and Diluted Earnings per Share, Excluding Certain Litigation and Tax Matters and Incremental Impact of SFAS 123R; Personal Solutions Operating Income and Operating Margin, Excluding Certain Litigation Matters; North America Information Services Operating Income and Operating Margin, Excluding Certain Litigation Matters; North America Operating Income and Operating Margin, Excluding Certain Litigation Matters; and Consolidated Operating Income and Operating Margin, Excluding Certain Litigation Matters and the Incremental Impact of SFAS 123R

Litigation Settlement - In June 2006, we consummated a settlement of claims against certain former selling shareholders of Naviant, Inc. In 2004, we served a demand for arbitration alleging, among other things, that the sellers were liable for rescission or for indemnification as a result of breaches of various representations and warranties concerning information furnished to us in connection with our acquisition of Naviant, Inc. in 2002. As a result of this settlement, we recognized a $14.1 million non-taxable gain in other income, net, on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the nine months ended September 30, 2006.

Management believes excluding this litigation settlement from certain financial results provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our financial results for the nine months ended September 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005 since the gain related to the litigation settlement associated with our previous acquisition of Naviant, Inc. is material and is not reflective of our core operations. This is consistent with how our management reviews and assesses Equifax's historical performance and is useful when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.

Other Litigation Matters – During the second quarter of 2006, we recorded a $14.0 million, pretax, and $8.7 million, net of tax, loss contingency related to certain legal matters. Of this $14.0 million, pretax loss, $11.5 million was recognized in selling, general and administrative expenses and $2.5 million was recognized in cost of services on our Consolidated Statements of Income. During the third quarter of 2006, there were favorable court rulings which reduced our exposure related to these litigation matters resulting in the reversal of a portion of the loss contingency. We reversed $9.0 million, pretax, of the loss contingency during the third quarter of 2006, of which $7.5 million was reversed to selling, general and administrative expenses and $1.5 million was reversed to cost of services on our Consolidated Statements of Income. The $14.0 million loss during the second quarter of 2006 and $9.0 million subsequent reversal of a portion of the loss in the third quarter of 2006 are included within our Personal Solutions segment financial results. The loss contingency accrual totaled $5.0 million as of September 30, 2006.

During the third quarter of 2006, we also recorded a $4.0 million, pretax, loss associated with certain litigation matters within our North America Information Services segment. Of this $4.0 million, pretax loss, $3.5 million was recognized in selling, general and administrative expenses and $0.5 million was recognized in cost of services on our Consolidated Statements of Income.

Management believes excluding these litigation matters from certain financial results provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our financial results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005 since the litigation loss contingencies and related reversal of such a material amount during the periods is not comparable to similar activity in the prior periods presented. This is consistent with how our management reviews and assesses Equifax's historical performance and is useful when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.

Income Tax Benefit – During the third quarter of 2006, the applicable statute of limitations related to uncertain tax positions expired resulting in the reversal of the related income tax reserve. The reversal of the reserves resulted in a $9.5 million income tax benefit. The income tax benefit was recorded in provision for income taxes on our Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006.

Management believes excluding this income tax benefit from certain financial results provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our financial results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005 since an income tax benefit of such a material amount is not comparable to similar activity in the prior periods presented. This is consistent with how our management reviews and assesses Equifax's historical performance and is useful when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.

SFAS 123R - On January 1, 2006, we adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123R"), which requires the cost relating to share-based payment transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services from either employees or non-employees be recognized in the Consolidated Financial Statements as the goods or services are rendered. The cost is measured at the fair value of the equity instrument issued. Since the date of adoption of SFAS 123R, we are no longer permitted to follow the intrinsic value accounting method under previous accounting guidance, which resulted in no stock-based compensation expense for stock options for which the exercise price was equal to the fair value of the underlying stock on the date of grant.

Management believes excluding the incremental impact of SFAS 123R from pretax, net income and diluted earnings per share provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our financial results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, as compared to the same periods in 2005 since our Consolidated Financial Statements issued prior to January 1, 2006 did not change as a result of adopting SFAS 123R. There was no change to our prior years' Consolidated Financial Statements because we elected the modified prospective transition method. Equifax believes that this financial information is useful to investors since it is consistent with how management assesses Equifax's historical performance and year-over-year growth and when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods. By excluding the incremental impact of SFAS 123R, our management is able to evaluate and review the financial and operational impact of various business initiatives.

The incremental impact of SFAS 123R during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 represents (1) the stock option expense related to stock options unvested at the time of adoption and granted during 2006, (2) the accelerated expense recognition for nonvested shares that were issued during the 2006 to employees that are retirement-eligible prior to the expiration of the stated vesting period, and (3) the impact of estimating forfeitures related to nonvested shares. For additional information about SFAS 123R, see Note 2 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in our Form 10-Q for the three months ended June 30, 2006.
