Equifax and TALX Announce Election Deadline in Connection with Proposed Acquisition

ATLANTA AND ST. LOUIS (May 7, 2007) –Equifax Inc. (NYSE: EFX) and TALX Corporation (NASDAQ: TALX) jointly announced today that May 14, 2007 has been set as the deadline to make an election with respect to the type of merger consideration received by shareholders in connection with Equifax's proposed acquisition of TALX. Completion of the acquisition is subject to customary closing conditions and approval of TALX shareholders.

TALX shareholders wishing to make an election regarding the consideration they would like to receive for their TALX shares must deliver to Computershare Investor Services, LLC, the exchange agent, a properly completed Election Form by 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on Monday, May 14, 2007, the election deadline. TALX shareholders may elect to receive cash, shares of Equifax common stock or a combination of cash and Equifax common stock for their TALX shares. Subject to the merger agreement, all elections are subject to proration so that 75 percent of the outstanding shares of TALX common stock are converted into shares of Equifax common stock, and the remaining 25 percent of the outstanding shares of TALX common stock are converted into cash. As a result, a TALX shareholder may receive cash or shares of Equifax common stock for greater or fewer TALX shares than specified in the Election Form, and the ability of a TALX shareholder to receive the form of consideration elected will depend on the elections made by other TALX shareholders.

TALX shareholders who do not properly deliver an Election Form to Computershare Investor Services, LLC (at the address specified in the Election Form) prior to the election deadline will forfeit the right to elect the form of consideration they would like to receive and will have no control over the type of merger consideration they receive. If the acquisition is completed, such non-electing shareholders will be allocated Equifax stock and/or cash depending on the elections made by other TALX shareholders using the proration adjustment.

A properly completed Election Form will be effective for the lesser of the number of shares held by such shareholder either on the election deadline or on the effective date of the merger. If shareholders make a proper election and subsequently transfer some or all of their shares of TALX common stock prior to the effective date of the merger, the Election Form will not be effective as to the transferred shares of TALX common stock and the new owner must file his or her own Election Form prior to the election deadline. If the new owner fails to file his or her own Election Form prior to the election deadline, the new owner will be deemed to have made a non-election. If a TALX shareholder purchases additional shares of TALX common stock after returning his or her Election Form to the exchange agent, such shareholder will need to file a new Election Form prior to the election deadline to cover all of his or her shares, including such additional shares.

TALX shareholders may obtain additional copies of the Election Form by contacting Computershare Investor Services, LLC at 800-245-7630.
