On September 11, 2014, Equifax Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to an additional $400 million of the Company’s outstanding shares of common stock in connection with a previously authorized share repurchase program. This amount is in addition to the approximately $141.7 million in unused Board authorization which was available at June 30, 2014 under the existing share repurchase program. Repurchases under the program will be effected from time to time through open market and privately negotiated transactions, some of which may be effected through Rule 10b5-1 plans. The timing of repurchases will depend on several factors, including market and business conditions. The program has no stated expiration date. A copy of this press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

The information provided in Item 7.01 of this Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto is furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liability of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Equifax Inc. Announces Additional $400 Million Share Repurchase Authorization

ATLANTA, GA, September 11, 2014 — Equifax Inc. (NYSE: EFX) announced today that its board of directors approved an additional $400 million share repurchase authorization. This authorization is in addition to the previous authorization, which had $141.7 million remaining as of June 30, 2014. Equifax may utilize various methods to effect the repurchases, which could include open market or negotiated transactions, some of which may be effected through Rule 10b5-1 plans. The timing of repurchases will depend on several factors, including market and business conditions. The stock repurchase program does not have an expiration date and may be limited or terminated at any time without prior notice.

“Equifax continues to drive increasing shareholder value through strong business execution against its key strategic priorities combined with investment in new products and business opportunities which generate attractive, long-term, sustainable growth. In addition to maintaining a strong balance sheet and paying a dividend, we expect to continue to repurchase shares from time to time using our excess cash,” said Richard F. Smith, Equifax Chairman and CEO. “The Board’s decision to expand the authorization level for share repurchases underscores the confidence they have in the future of Equifax.”

Over the past ten years through June 30, 2014, the company has returned $2.4 billion to shareholders through a combination of dividends and share repurchases, or 85 percent of reported net income.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements or forward-looking information. These statements can be identified by expressions of belief, expectation or intention, as well as statements that are not historical fact. These statements are based on certain factors and assumptions including with respect to foreign exchange rates, expected growth, results of operations, performance, business prospects and opportunities and effective tax rates. While we believe these factors and assumptions to be reasonable based on information currently available, they may prove to be incorrect. Several factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to actions taken by us, including restructuring or strategic initiatives (including capital investments or asset acquisitions or dispositions), as well as from developments beyond our control, including, but not limited to, changes in worldwide and U.S. economic conditions that materially impact consumer spending, consumer debt and employment and the demand for Equifax's products and services. Other risk factors include adverse or uncertain economic conditions and changes in credit and financial markets; risks relating to illegal third party efforts to access data or other cybersecurity or physical security breaches; changes in, and the effects of, laws and regulations and government policies governing our business, including our examination and supervision in the U.S. by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (the "CFPB") and in the United Kingdom by the Financial Conduct Authority; federal or state responses to identity theft concerns; potential adverse developments in new and pending legal proceedings or government investigations, including investigations or examinations undertaken by the CFPB, State Attorneys General or other governmental agencies; our ability to successfully develop and market new products and services, respond to pricing and other competitive pressures, complete and integrate acquisitions and other investments and achieve targeted cost efficiencies; timing and amount of capital expenditures; changes in capital markets and corresponding effects on our investments and benefit plan obligations; foreign currency exchange rates and earnings repatriation limitations; impacts from our repurchases of shares of Equifax common stock under our share repurchase authorizations, including the timing and amounts of any common stock repurchases; and the decisions of taxing authorities, all of which could affect our effective tax rates. A summary of additional risks and uncertainties can be found in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, including without limitation under the captions "Item 1. Business — Governmental Regulation" and "— Forward-Looking Statements" and "Item 1A, Risk Factors," and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements are given only as at the date of this release and the company disclaims any obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
